

How to Access your GWRRA Rider Education Database Training Record

The GWRRA (now RPM Academy) Rider Education Database contains information regarding your Levels status, Membership expiration dates, and the Rider Education classes you have completed. Your personal information, phone numbers, e-mail and home address also. This information is based on the last update provided from home office July of 2022.

Go to <http://rpmacademy.net>

Scroll down slightly on the main page until you see the below pictures.

Clicking anywhere on the Rider Education picture takes you to the Rider Education page.

Scroll down slightly until you see the menu options that have the link to My R.E. Information

Rider Education Acronyms	Approved Rider Education Courses	Rider Education Levels Program	My R.E. Information
Rider Course Signup Link			My R.E. Instructions

This link takes you to the My R.E. login page.

If you need help with your member login information, you can click on the I Need Help Logging In link.

Be aware EVERYONE'S expiration date has been changed to January 2050.

If you need additional assistance on how to use or read the information, the link How To Access Your RE Database Record Instructions, although a bit dated, is accurate and can help you through the use of the information provided within the database.
